You can donate much-needed items, such as household essentials, cleaning supplies, food, and other practical goods that help keep the house running smoothly. Your Guide to Supporting Hugh's House through Corporate Sponsorship

When a Child Is Seriously Ill, Families Need More Than a Hospital.

Hugh's House provides free support to families whose children are receiving life-saving medical treatment in Dublin hospitals. At one of the most difficult times in their lives, we offer comfort, compassion and a home away from home.

Every night a family stays at Hugh's House, they can be closer to their child, spend less time worrying about travel and accommodation, and focus on what matters most, being together.

Your Company Can Make That Possible.

By partnering with Hugh's House, your organisation will directly support families facing unimaginable challenges, helping us provide warmth, care and hope when it is needed most. Together, we can ensure that no family faces their child's illness alone.

Nicola spent 7 months in Hugh's House whilst her son Luke was in CHI Temple Street.

There are so many different ways that you can support Hugh's House and our families.

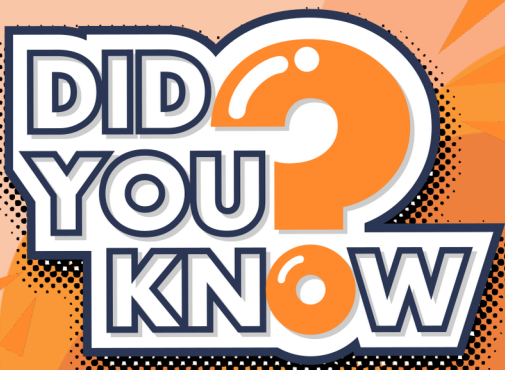

Whether your company chooses to make a financial contribution, sponsor one of our rooms, support a fundraising event, donate goods or services, organise an employee fundraising challenge, or establish a long-term corporate partnership, every contribution makes a meaningful difference.

Ade Stack (Hugh's Mum and Founder of Hugh's House) with Sean Reid (Manager of The Croke Park Hotel, and Hugh's House Supporter)

Your support helps us provide a warm, welcoming home-away-from-home for families who have travelled to Dublin while their child receives life-saving medical treatment. Together, we can ease the financial and emotional burden on parents, keep families close to their children during critical times, and ensure that no family has to face their journey alone.

When your company partners with Hugh's House, you are not simply supporting a charity, you are helping to provide comfort, dignity, hope and togetherness for families when they need it most.
